

Description

Desk-rejection of manuscripts is a common occurrence in academic publishing. Manuscripts getting desk rejected can be disheartening and demotivating for authors, especially early career researchers. In this podcast, Roger Watson, Editor-in-Chief of *Journal of Advanced Nursing shares his perspective on why manuscripts get desk rejected and what authors need to keep in mind to avoid desk rejection of their manuscript.

Here, you will learn about:

- What is desk rejection?
- What are the key factors that influence editors-in-chief/editors to reject your manuscript
- Tips on how to avoid desk rejection
- How to deal with desk rejection of your manuscript.
