

Description

Publishing your manuscript in a good and impactful journal is something that every researcher aspires to achieve. In this episode of Enago Academy's podcast, we will discuss the most important step of a researcher's publication journey, i.e., the preparation of a submission ready manuscript.

In this episode, you will learn about:

- How to initiate the process of putting together a manuscript
- Drafting a publishable manuscript
- Pre-submission considerations that authors need to keep in mind.
