

I have received invitation from a conference. How do I find out whether it is predatory or not?

Author

Ebekozien Nasteho

Post Url

<https://www.enago.com/academy/q/11711/i-have-received-invitation-from-a-conference-how-do-i-find-out-whether-it-is-predatory-or-not/>

I have recently heard from my colleagues about a free invitation that we have to attend a conference in January 2018. I personally have not heard of the organizers before and during registration the details of the conference were very unclear. Although I do not have to pay any fees to attend it, the conference requires me to travel. For a successful travel grant application, I need to ensure that the conference is valid and not a predatory one.

Cite this article

Ebekozien Nasteho, I have received invitation from a conference. How do I find out whether it is predatory or not?. Enago Academy. 2017/12/14. <https://www.enago.com/academy/q/11711/i-have-received-invitation-from-a-conference-how-do-i-find-out-whether-it-is-predatory-or-not/>