

TIPS FOR WRITING A GOOD REVIEW ARTICLE

1

Conduct a thorough literature survey.

2

Include a title, abstract, index, introduction, corpus, bibliography, and appendices (if needed) in your review article.

3

Choose a well-defined topic and draft the review keeping in mind your target audience.

4

Use reference management tools (e.g., Mendeley Desktop) to cite published work and save time.

5

Maintain good structure and flow.

6

Review and highlight the latest and most-cited research.

7

Avoid plagiarism by explaining published literature to your target audience in your own words.

8

Present a detailed analysis of the research work undertaken in a particular area.

9

Identify strengths and weaknesses, refrain from bias, and cite accurately.

10

In the summary section, identify topics/ideas that need further investigation.
