

How to Ensure Your Manuscript's Originality With iThenticate

Author
Enago Academy

Post Url
<https://www.enago.com/academy/how-to-ensure-your-manuscripts-originality-with-ithenticate/>

Watch Now

iThenticate is one of the most trusted plagiarism detection tools used by researchers, universities, journals, and publication houses worldwide to prevent the accidental publication of the plagiarized text. Enago collaborated with iThenticate for an insightful webinar to help researchers publish original research work with confidence. Post-submission, manuscripts are screened for similarity check against an extensively curated repository of previously published work and webpages archived by iThenticate. This webinar will help researchers understand why similarity checking is an essential step in the publishing process and how researchers can read and interpret the similarity report.

Researchers will learn:

- How Enago and iThenticate help you publish with confidence
- How to avoid plagiarism during manuscript preparation
- How to read an iThenticate similarity report

About iThenticate (www.ithenticate.com/)

iThenticate is the premier tool for researchers and professional writers to check their original works for potential plagiarism. With an easy to use submission process that checks for similarity against the world's top published works, researchers and institutions can feel confident that their academic reputation will be protected.

About the Speakers

Gretchen Hanson, Principal Product Marketing Manager at Turnitin

Gretchen Hanson oversees the product marketing strategy and execution for Turnitin's suite of integrity products. Her team focuses on producing sales and marketing resources to support our global teams in the education, publishing, and corporate sectors. She had a diverse background in both product management and account management before translating those skills and finding her true passion in product marketing. Gretchen has 20 years of experience in education and EdTech, and holds a Masters of Library and Information Science from the University of Maryland, College Park.

Kate Nyzova, Associate Product Marketing Manager at Turnitin

Kate Nyzova is a product marketer at iThenticate. She enables sales and marketing teams to spread the word about how iThenticate helps researchers publish with confidence. Kate is truly passionate about the technology that simplifies the daily lives of professionals. She has a Masters in International Business and comes from a background in content marketing for EdTech and other technology companies.

Tony O'Rourke, Vice-President, Partnerships at Enago

Tony has more than 30 years of experience in the scientific, technical, and medical (STM) publishing/scholarly communication sector. He graduated from one of Germany's leading business schools, Fachhochschule Reutlingen and Middlesex University. Since graduating, he has established himself in professional publishing, having held senior roles at IOP Publishing and Royal College of Nursing (RCNi). At Enago, he is Vice President responsible for partnerships with publishers, professional societies and higher education organizations, making high-quality author services and knowledge/education services easily accessible for researchers and authors as well as launching AI products for use in scientific writing. Tony has served on the Council and Board of ALPSP (Association of Learned and Professional Society Publishers) and on the Serial Publishers Executive of the Publishers Association (UK).

Cite this article

Enago Academy, How to Ensure Your Manuscript's Originality With iThenticate. Enago Academy. 2021/02/28. <https://www.enago.com/academy/how-to-ensure-your-manuscripts-originality-with-ithenticate/>